LOCATION

Great Plumstead is a sought after village located to the east of Norwich, known for its attractive rural surroundings, community feel, and historic charm, including the parish church of St Mary. Local amenities are available in nearby villages such as Little Plumstead and Brundall, while everyday essentials, schools, and leisure facilities are all within easy reach. Great Plumstead is particularly well positioned for connectivity, lying approximately 6 miles from Norwich city centre, where a wide range of shopping, dining, and cultural attractions can be found, along with mainline rail services to London. The nearby village of Brundall (around 3 miles) provides additional amenities, including shops, pubs, and a train station, while the A47 is easily accessible for routes towards Great Yarmouth (approximately 18 miles) and the wider Norfolk coastline.
