Bridget's Cottage, 3 Church Street, Weybourne, Holt NR25 7SX

A wonderful opportunity to acquire a delightful terraced cottage set in the heart of this highly favoured coastal village and within sound of the church bells. This wonderful property dates back to the late 19th century and exudes charm and character throughout including the original washhouse complete with bread oven. Although the property does not have any off-road parking it does have a surprisingly generous rear garden for a cottage of this size.

Weybourne itself has become a popular coastal destination in recent years and has a village pub and shop whilst the approach road to the beach leads from the centre of the Village. Weybourne is also famous for the North Norfolk Steam Railway and beautiful walks around Kelling Heath.
