LOCATION

Knapton is a picturesque North Norfolk village enjoying a peaceful rural setting just three miles from the market town of North Walsham, which offers a wide range of shops, supermarkets, schools, healthcare facilities and a railway station with services to Norwich and the wider rail network. The village is also within easy reach of the Norfolk Broads and the city of Norwich, approximately 20 miles to the south.

The popular coastal village of Mundesley, with its sandy beach, cafés and local amenities, is just a short drive away, while the renowned North Norfolk coastline offers an abundance of scenic walks, nature reserves and charming seaside towns. Combining countryside tranquillity with excellent access to local services, transport links and the coast, Knapton is ideally placed to enjoy the very best of North Norfolk living.
